DETAILED ACTION

ELECTIONS/RESTRICTIONS

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-16, drawn to a method of screen printing to the edge of a surface of an object, classified in class 101, subclass 129.
 - II. Claims 17-20, drawn to a platen for supporting a wafer during screen printing, classified in class 101, subclass 123.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case, the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process such as wafer bonding.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

During a telephone conversation with Henry Woodward on 3/1/04 a provisional election was made without traverse to prosecute the invention of Group 1, claims 1-16. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 17-20 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Henry Woodward on 3/3/04.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 1 has been amended to read:

1. In a screen printing of a surface of an object, a method for preventing ink flow over an edge of the object comprising the steps of:
 - a) placing the object with the edge positioned above a flow of gas,
 - b) placing a screen over the object,
 - c) applying an ink through the screen onto the object, and
 - d) using the flow of gas to prevent ink flow over the edge.

Claim 9 has been amended to read:

9. A method of screen printing to the edge of a surface of an object comprising the steps of:
 - a) providing a platen having a support surface for the object, the surface including a gas supply line,

- b) placing the object on the platen with the edge overlapping the gas supply line in the platen,
- c) placing a screen over the object,
- d) applying an ink through the screen onto the object, and
- e) applying a flow of gas from the gas supply over the edge of the object during application of a print ink to thereby oppose the flow of ink over the edge and to the platen.

This application is in condition for allowance except for the presence of claims 17-20 to an invention non-elected without traverse. Accordingly, claims 17-20 been cancelled.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: regarding claim 1, the prior art does not teach or render obvious a method, placing the object with the edge positioned above a flow of gas, placing a screen over the object, applying an ink through the screen onto the object, and using the flow of gas to prevent ink flow over the edge.

Regarding claim 9, the prior art does not teach or render obvious a method providing a platen having a support surface for the object, the surface including a gas supply line, placing the object on the platen with the edge overlapping the gas supply line in the platen, placing a screen over the object, applying an ink through the screen onto the object, and applying a flow of gas from the gas supply over the edge or the object during application of a print ink to thereby oppose the flow of ink over the edge and to the platen.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
